Midnight Sun Midnight Party Kit

Celebrate 15 years of twilight and the new novel midnight sun by throwing the ultimate midnight party. Whether you're calling your coven together or gathering vampires virtually, this kit contains recipes, activity sheets, quizzes, and more ideas for a party that will live on (at least in memory) forever.

IMMORTAL INVITATIONS

Midnight Sun parties don't have to be at midnight, but they do have invitations. Make sure to include time, attire, and any links to meet digitally. Social media templates can be found at thetwilightsaga.com

POMEGRANATES AND PETALS

Set the scene with themed décor. Pomegranates and apples are a must (and provide a snack if you get hungry!). Perhaps some lush greens, calling to mind the landscape of the Pacific Northwest. Gather tulips, similar to the New Moon cover. You can even use the included craft activity to create your own Twilight-themed vase as a party favor.

COVEN KITCHEN

Anyone in the mood for venison? How about mushroom ravioli, reminiscent of Bella and Edward's first date? No party is complete without a few snacks, and some Twilight-inspired recipes are sure to please a crowd. Whatever your menu might be, there's always room for dessert. How about a MIDNIGHT SUN-DAE?

TWILIGHT TRIVIA

Host a mini-trivia contest! How many times has everyone read the series? Who is the biggest Twilight fan at the event? You could also ask everyone to submit a question, to see if they can stump the crowd.

MORE midnight sun FUN!

DIY Twilight Vase

Supplies:

- Plain glass or ceramic vase. You can find these at your local craft store or online.
- Mod Podge®
- A printer (to print out your Twilight quotes!)

• Step 1: Print out your favorite quotes from Twilight. You can even use the teaser quotes from Midnight Sun! Try different fonts, type sizes, and a variety of colors for added customization.

• Step 2: Tear or cut the quotes out. Tearing helps the edges look rough and more organic.

Optional: To make the paper look aged, try staining it with tea! Dip the printed quotes into prepared black tea and allow it to soak into the paper. The more you saturate the paper, the darker it will get. Allow it to dry before using Mod Podge®.

• Step 3: Lay out your pattern. It helps to map out where you want the quotes to sit before setting them with the Mod Podge®. Try different angles, overlapping, etc.

• Step 4: Paint a layer of Mod Podge® on the surface of the vase, working in sections. Apply the quotes over the painted section and smooth out with your fingers to make sure the paper is flush with the vase.

• Step 5: Once the quotes are all placed on the vase, paint another layer of Mod Podge® over the whole vase. It may appear cloudy but will dry clear!

• Step 6: Show off a pretty bouquet—and your Twilight fandom—with your new vase!

A NOVL RECIPE

Chocolate Pomegranate Bark

What You Need:

- 4 oz of (at least) 65% dark chocolate
- Butter knife or offset spatula
- ¼ cups of pomegranate arils
- Paper towels or napkins
- Cookie sheet or large plate
- Microwave safe bowl
- Wax or parchment paper

Directions:

Using a paper towel or napkin, pat dry pomegranate arils as much as possible. Note: the arils might not stick to the chocolate if there is too much moisture. Break chocolate into smaller pieces and place in a microwave safe bowl. Heat chocolate in the microwave until melted, stirring every 20-30 seconds. Cover your cookie sheet or large plate with a piece of parchment or wax paper. Using a butter knife (or offset spatula if you are fancy), spread chocolate at least as thick as a coin. Keep in mind that the thicker the chocolate, the more time it needs to cool. Sprinkle the pomegranate arils onto chocolate and refrigerate bark for at least 30 minutes or until chocolate is set. Chocolate will appear matte when it is set. As the chocolate cools, let's make the caramel!

Pomegranate Salted Caramel

What You Need:

- ½ cup of white granulated sugar
- 1/2 tablespoon of kosher or flaky sea salt
- 3/16 cups of pomegranate juice
- 1 tablespoon of lemon or lime juice (optional)
- 1/16 cup of water
- Wooden spoon or heat proof spatula
- 4 tablespoons of water or milk
- Small sauce pan
- 1/2 tablespoon of butter
- Heat proof glass bowl

Directions:

In a small sauce pan, combine the sugar, pomegranate juice, 1/16 cup water and lime or lemon juice. Turn stove on medium heat and stir mixture with a wooden spoon (or heat proof spatula) and stop immediately after sugar has completely dissolved. Once large bubbles begin to form, check for any sugar crystals on the surface of the caramel. Stir crystals in the caramel if you see any. Once the caramel becomes the consistency of maple syrup (around 8-10 min), turn off the heat and add butter. Add 4 tablespoons of water or milk to stop the cooking process. Be careful as caramel is hot and may splatter. Quickly stir in the salt. Pour caramel in a heat proof glass bowl. Allow caramel to cool to room temperature. Note: If caramel cools too much, it may not be pourable. If it is too thick to pour, microwave for roughly 10-15 seconds.

Assembly

What You Need:

- 1 Pint of Your Favorite Vanilla Ice Cream
- Prepared Chocolate Pomegranate Bark
- Prepared Pomegranate Caramel
- Serving bowl

Directions:

Once caramel is cool, take your chocolate out of the refrigerator. Lift the parchment or wax paper and slightly fold chocolate onto itself to create the desired size of chocolate bark. Scoop 2-3 (or more) of your favorite vanilla ice cream into your bowl. Place a couple shards of chocolate pomegranate bark in between scoops of ice cream. Pour caramel all over. Enjoy!
